

Fact Sheet

The following table provides you with the basic data and deadlines of the German- Degree Program in Food Economy (M.Eng.) at the Trier University of Applied Sciences:

Masters programme	Degree Masters program in Food Economy
Degree	Master of Engineer Degree (M.Eng.) in Food Economy from the University of Applied Sciences Trier, Germany
Starting date	Spring and Fall Semester
Duration	3 Semesters (full time)
Credits	90 ECTS
Language	German, a part of the modules in English
Established since	Spring Semester 2012
Accreditation	AQAS and System Accreditation
Application deadlines	International and German Applicants: July 15 (Fall) or 15 December (Spring)
Fees and costs	Living expenses in Germany approx. 700 EUR per month, tuition fees approx. 200 EUR per Semester
Admission requirements	A Bachelor´s degree or equivalent from an accredited institution with 210 ECTS, Personal Statement from the Applicant will be required, German (B2) and English (B1) language skills recommended
Visa information	Applicants (Non-EU) must apply for a "Student Visa" at their nearest Embassy or Consulate
Health insurance	Students are required to hold a health insurance that covers their health expenses during their studies both in Germany (insurances can be arranged upon arrival in the country - if you have any questions, the International Office will help you !)
Enrolment	to be determined